

On the move

Published: Sunday, April 10, 2011 at 4:00 a.m.

Charles L. "Chuck" Fernandez has been named executive director of Catholic Charities. He has served as co-interim executive director since January and senior program director for the Family Support Center shelter in downtown Santa Rosa since November 2009.

Charles L. "Chuck" Fernandez

Linda Fox is owner and president of Compliance Connection, after retirement of co-founder Terry Behrens. The Santa Rosa business provides compliance service for wineries, vineyard owners, wine brokers, importers and wholesalers.

Jeran Stumbaugh has been named director of sales at the Santa Rosa Convention and Visitors Bureau. A lifelong resident of Sonoma County, Stumbaugh most recently worked as social events coordinator and sales manager for Vintners Inn Event Center and John Ash & Company.

Frank Howard Allen Realtors is opening six new locations at 550 Broadway, Sonoma; 13750 Arnold Drive, Glen Ellen; 9200 Sonoma Highway, Kenwood; 433 Soscol Ave., Napa; 657 Main St., St. Helena and 2875 Napa Valley Corporate Dr., Napa.

Bridgestone Retail Services has opened a new Wheel Works store at 6521 Redwood Dr. in Rohnert Park. The store offers tires, auto maintenance, repairs and other services.

Dave Fahrner has joined Terra Firma Global Partners as associate partner in its Sebastopol office. The real estate company serves customers in Sonoma, Marin and Napa counties.

Attorney Anthony M. Isola joins the litigation team at Smith Dollar PC, a real estate and financial services law firm in Santa Rosa. His practice is focused on business and real estate matters.

Joseph W. Saltzman has joined Cork Supply USA as sales consultant for Sonoma, Mendocino and Lake counties. He is founder of Barrel Block, a Santa Rosa company that produces countertops, flooring and butcher blocks from wine barrels. Previously he served as sustainability packaging coordinator at Kendall-Jackson and a sales investment broker for Grubb & Ellis.

Sebastopol resident Leah Godsey Walker has been named chief of the Drinking Water and Environmental Management Division at the state Department of Public Health. She has worked for the agency 18 years in the Santa Rosa field office.

Bruce Gradek has been hired as viticulturist by Ranch Systems, a Novato firm that manufactures wireless devices for agricultural uses such as frost alerts, soil moisture tracking and weather changes.

Joseph A. Myers, an attorney and Pomo Indian from Sonoma County, received the Peter E. Haas Public Service Award from the University of California at Berkeley. He is founder of the California Indian Museum and National Indian Justice Center in Santa Rosa.

Copyright © 2011 PressDemocrat.com — All rights reserved. Restricted use only.

Santa Rosa law firm Perry, Johnson, Anderson, Miller & Moskowitz has joined the North Bay Leadership Council's Board of Directors. Leslie Perry will be the firm's representative on NBLC board.

Submit items to onthemove@pressdemocrat.com.